This house is in a rural location with 360 degree views over the countryside and hills. You enter into the living room with an archway through to a dining area or second living room with a fireplace, plus another door to bedroom three which is another double. From the living rooms there are doors to the first two double bedrooms, and another door to the first kitchen with plenty of worktops and storage under. Along a hallway to the second kitchen which is larger and also has plenty of worktops etc. Another door along the hallway to the bathroom with a shower, large storage cupboard/ cloakroom. From the second kitchen there is a door to the rear of the house and a large 6m x 10m garage, (this could be knocked through to make an extra large living space). There is a piece of land...
