Gorgeous reformed townhouse in Los Montesinos which has been completely rebuilt and had all the rooms redistributed to allow for all the rooms to be much larger than usual, plus a fabulous front porch which is enclosed.

Coming in the front gate, there is a large covered terrace which is almost like a second living room, and which leads to the front door of the house. On the ground floor of the property we have a very spacious living room, bathroom, bedroom (currently used as a gym), separate kitchen with dining area and enclosed pantry. The pantry is quite a large room and actually doubles as a laundry room too! The first floor of the property has two extra large bedrooms, and family...
