We are delighted to bring to the market this truly stunning finca in the heart of the countryside yet just a short walk to the village of Raspay and a short drive to the affluent town of Pinoso

As you enter via the main gate to the property into a driveway with carport and a good sized garage large enough for storage as well as your vehicle

Via a gate from the drive area brings you to a stunning set of courtyards the first with a covered terrace with typical Valencian style arches for relaxation important summer shade. As you continue round the property there is another sitting area that is a stunning sun trap and is perfect for a early morning spot of breakfast and we continue through a set of wrought iron gates where the outside area really...
